GENERAL ORDER NO. 02-00

- I. Authority: General Order No. 01-00 and DCMA Director guidance.
- II. The following administrative changes are made to Headquarters DCMA, Districts, and Centers as follows:
  - A. Office symbols/name changes to the Headquarters Special Staff (DS) are as follows:
    1. Director's Support Office (DSD)
    2. Public and Government Affairs Office (DSA)
    3. East Assessment Office (DSE)
    4. West Assessment Office (DSW)
    5. Procurement Management Review Office (DSP)
    6. Internal Review Office (DSI)
  - B. The DCMA Executive Director Financial & Business Operations is also designated the DCMA Comptroller. The DCMA Deputy Executive Director, Financial and Business Operations is designated the DCMA Deputy Comptroller.
  - C. The Districts' Offices of General Counsel (GC) are renamed District Counsel (GC).
  - D. The Districts' Public Relations Offices are renamed Public Affairs Office.
  - E. The office symbol of the DCMA Civil Military Integration Center is changed to DCMAC-H.
  - F. The DCMA Litigation Center (DCMAC-Z) is renamed DCMA Contract Disputes Resolution Center (CDRC).
  - G. The DCMA Contract Integrity Center (DCMAC-Y) is established and assigned to DCMA-GC.

- III. Contract Administration Offices are renamed Contract Management Offices (CMO) to reflect the expanded mission of our major field activities beyond traditional contract administration services.
- A. CMOs can be either geographic (multiple contractor) or resident in a contractor's facility (in-plant). CMOs may report directly to a District Commander or may report to a parent CMO. Either a military Commander or a civilian Administrator may lead CMOs.
  - B. Districts will determine the need for a contract receipt point (CRP) depending upon workload and other considerations.
  - C. CMOs' reporting channels are established in accordance with paragraphs IV to VI below. CONUS CMOs will use the following naming convention, Defense Contract Management (DCM) 'Company and/or City.' OCONUS CMOs and DCM APMO deviate from this convention as shown below.
  - D. The diagram below shows a typical District to CMO reporting structure and CMO to CMO structure.
